

Season 1 Episode 25

The Wong Place At The Wong Time

Months ago, a scammer called, Wong, tricked Jason and Mason into getting into a car accident and Wong attempted to sue Jason and Mason for it. Jason and Mason proved to the court that Wong was a fraud and Wong lost his case. Wong wants revenge on Jason and Mason and this is what happened.

Jason is in the living room playing video games while Mason is in his lab working on inventions. The houses in the neighborhood (except for Jason and Mason's house) begin to shake. They shake to a point where they are violently moving back and forth. The plumbing pipes in the houses explode and water and sewage spill out onto the street and all the houses in the neighborhood are ruined. Mason hears the sound and he walks outside and he sees the devastation in the streets. Jason steps out and Jason said, "What did you do this time?" Mason said, "This wasn't me. There must be something wrong with the sewage and plumbing in the neighborhood." Jason said, "Why has every house been destroyed and not ours?" Mason said, "Good question. We need to figure that out. It is probably safer in my lab anyways." Jason and Mason go to Mason's lab where Mason uses his computer to detect irregularities in the plumbing system. Mason looks at the readings and Mason said, "It looks like someone sabotaged the plumbing systems for all the houses on the street except for ours. It is like someone hated everybody on our street, but they wanted to keep us alive." Jason said, "How nice of them. They wanted to keep us alive. I am truly flattered." Mason said, "There must be a catch to this." The phone in Mason's lab rings and Mason answers it. Mason hears Wong's voice say, "Good day, Mason. Do you like what I've done to every house on the street?" Mason said, "It was you that did this." Wong said, "You figured it was me. You are more cunning than I thought." Mason gets angry and he said, "What do you want this time, Wong?" Wong said, "This is my new plan for revenge. I have linked all the houses on your street to bombs that I placed in the sewers. They will explode and destroy your house and lab if you go anywhere near them so don't attempt to disarm them. I destroyed every house on your street, so you will see what is going to happen if you don't do as I say. You have to do what I say, and your house will not get destroyed. If you don't follow my instructions, your house will get blown up like everyone else's. Do we have an agreement?" Mason said, "What is the first thing you want us to do?"

Jason and Mason walk down a street in downtown near an all-girl school. Jason and Mason are in their underwear and they have sandwich signs on them. Jason said, "Why do we have to do this?" Mason said, "Wong requested it, or he will blow our house up." Jason said, "I mean, what do you think will come from this?" Girls at the all-girl school see Jason and Mason and they see Jason and Mason are wearing sandwich signs that say, "Sunset Sucks" on them.

Girls leave the school grounds and they surround Jason and Mason. One of them said, "It takes a great pound of guts to go walking around the school wearing signs that mock the greatest film and book series ever written." Jason looks at his sign and he said, "Oh, that Sunset. This makes more sense now." Mason said, "Every house on our street was destroyed and the man that did this said he would destroy our house if we didn't do this." One of the girls said, "Isn't it better to have your house destroyed and keep your dignity than it is to lose your dignity and keep your house?" Jason said, "I don't understand this." One of the girls grabs scissors and she cuts the signs off Jason and Mason and they start beating up Jason and Mason. Jason and Mason leave the street and they keep being chased by the girls that want them dead. Mason said, "No one will buy this. People probably think we are insane. We're two guys running down the street in our underwear being chased by crazy girls that want to beat us." Jason said, "We must have achieved what we were supposed to do."

Jason and Mason get to a city block and they see a payphone near them ring. Mason picks it up. Wong is on the other end and he said, "Bravo, Jason and Mason. I knew you could do it. That is the funniest thing I've seen in years. I didn't think it was possible to laugh the way I laughed but I guess I was wrong. I have another task for you." Mason said, "How many more of these tasks are there?" Wong said, "I will decide as the day goes on. I want you to..."

Jason and Mason arrive at a concert hall where DG the Rapper is holding a concert. Jason and Mason arrive at the hall and someone gives them special VIP backstage passes. Jason and Mason go backstage and they see DG the Rapper getting ready for his concert. DG said, "Jason my man. How's it going?" Jason said, "I've had a very messed up day with all the houses on my street getting destroyed." DG said, "I've heard about that. How did that happen?" Mason said, "We were told to not tell anyone about why we are here." DG said, "A surprise for everyone including myself. That's the way I like it." The concert begins, and DG sings an epic song and there are crazy strobe lights that contain the entire color spectrum. The song ends, and DG said, "I now have something special for everyone. I have here, Jason and Mason and they have an important message for all of us. Hit it." Jason and Mason walk on stage and they are both given microphones. Jason said, "You go first." Mason said, "Sunset sucks!" Everyone in the audience gets angry and they start throwing things at Jason and Mason. DG said, "Hey, thank ain't cool bro. Sunset is awesome."

Jason and Mason are on a different street. Mason said, "I think it might be better at this point if we stop doing Wong's requests. There is a good chance he is going to destroy our homes anyways and at least if we stop, we may still have our dignity. I think we should head home. I don't see any payphones around here that Wong could use to call us on." Jason and Mason go back home, and they stay in Mason's lab. Mason looks at things on the internet while Jason watches TV. On TV, it is San Francisco's Stupidest Home Movies. Jason said, "Look, we are on SFSHM." Mason watches the TV and they see the videos of them in their underwear being chased by angry girls and them starting a riot at the DG concert. Jason sinks into the sofa. Mason said, "The videos are even on the internet. There are whole web pages about us doing these stupid things. I will see if there is a way I can erase them from the internet." Jason said, "You can't. The internet is forever. I know, I've seen people upload stupid things two years ago and their lives are still ruined from that. They will never be thought of as normal again.” The TV is still on and it is on DDD News. Captain Fusion is on the screen. Captain Fusion shows a map of the city and he said, “I’ve been tracking the activity of a scammer in this area and I am trying to pinpoint his location.”

The phone rings and Jason answers it. It is Wong and Jason said, “If you’re looking for Mason, he’s on the can. I can take a message.” Wong said, “I want you to do the following...” Jason hears the message and a grin forms on his face. Mason said, “What is it?” Jason said, “You are going to like this one. I love it already. This Wong is finally talking sense.” Mason said, “I would bet a million dollars that there is more to it than what meets the eye. It is probably a trap.” Jason said, “What if it’s not and he is going to blow up the lab right now?” Mason looks around at his priceless valuables and equipment. Mason said, “Fine, we’ll do it.” Jason and Mason head off to the next thing. They go to Keith’s mansion and they go to the front of the house. They are given a blowhorn and Jason blows it. Keith is working on an invention and he hears the loud sound. Keith said, “Is it those stupid church people that go door to door trying to scam people?” Keith looks out his window and he sees Jason and Mason mooning Keith. Keith sees what is happening and Keith goes still. Keith screams in pain. Keith said, “My eyes! I’m blind. Help me oh someone.” Keith falls to the floor and he is still and stiff like a cardboard figure. Jason and Mason cover up their butts and Jason said, “That was friggin’ awesome.” The police show up and the cop said, “You are under arrest for indecent exposure.” Jason and Mason get handcuffed and taken in a cop car. The cop said, “I hope you’ve learned your lesson from this. You think you can go to people’s houses and flash your flabby rear-ends at them. You’re wrong. I’ve seen your butts before. They are all over the internet. You’ve been doing this for weeks thinking you will never get caught, but you did.” Mason said, “There must be some mistake. We only did this today for the first time because this morning...” The cop said, “So you just admitted that you did it. That will put you into prison for a long time.”

The cop car is driving in downtown and it hits a sharp spike and the tires pop, and the car spins out of control. The systems on the car begin to fail and the doors open, and Jason and Mason fall out of the squad car and onto the street. Jason and Mason are still handcuffed. Jason said, “We need to find a way to get these off our hands.” Mason said, “How do you think we will do that?” They see a shadowy figure in an alley way say, “I can do that.” Jason and Mason walk to the shadowy figure and he undoes their handcuffs and Jason said, “Thanks. Who are you?” The shadowy figure reveals himself as, Wong.” Jason and Mason get scarred and say, “Wong!” Wong said, “I am impressed with what you’ve done. I love being entertained from controlling people that I hate and make them do embarrassing things. I am more powerful than you think. I’ve got out of jail last time because I manipulated the jury system, so they will say I am not guilty.” Jason said, “You... cheating...” Wong said, “Is that all you are going to say to me?” Jason said, “Mason has got some pretty powerful robots that can crush you like a bug.” Wong said, “Ambitious and courageous. I am quite impressed, not. You will come with me.” Wong grabs onto Jason and Mason by their ears and he pulls them into a building in the alley way.

Jason and Mason are brought into a building that looks like a dojo where ninjas are being trained. Wong said, "This is my super-secret hideout." Jason said, "A building in an alleyway. I never would have thought of that." Wong said, "I conduct all my business from here." Wong opens a screen and it shows his henchmen typing on computers. Wong said, "These are the people that work for me. They coordinate everything for me. I have the greatest martial arts masters in the city working for me." Jason said, "How many great martial arts artists are there in the city?" Wong said, "More than you can think." Jason and Mason are brought to Wong's front desk. Wong looks at his computer and he sees all the videos of Jason and Mason. Wong said, "You do know the internet is forever. I can hold you here for the rest of your days if you don't want to go outside again. I would be pretty embarrassed if this happened to me." Mason said, "You can't get away with your scams. I have a cellphone. I can call the cops if I want." Wong said, "They will arrest you too. You are just as much of a criminal now as I am. I do have one more thing to ask of you. I will film you getting your butts kicked by my ninjas." Wong summons his ninjas and they surround Jason and Mason.

Jason jumps in front and he uses his Kung-Fu moves to kick a few of them down and fight off a few of them. There are so many, and they greatly outnumber Jason. They grab onto him and smack him in the stomach and gut so many times and Jason falls to the floor in pain. Mason uses his remote to call for a battle robot from his lab. The remote is kicked out of Mason's hand and it falls to the floor and a ninja steps on it and breaks it. Mason said, "You are too late. My robot will be coming in soon." Mason runs away from the ninjas as they try to attack him. A battle robot smashes through the ceiling and Mason jumps in the robot and he controls it. He fires rockets and he punches down more of the ninjas. Wong sees he is running out of ninjas, so he calls in for a large and strong man. The remaining ninjas back off as Mason fights the strong man. The strong man punches Mason's robot and he cracks the face shield on it. Mason punches the strong man and it does not do much. Mason keeps punching and the strong man does not seem to be getting injured. The strong man throws his fist through Mason's face shield and he grabs Mason out of his robot and he smashes Mason in the face and he throws Mason to the ground. Jason and Mason are left incapacitated in pain and agony.

Wong congratulates his strong man on his fight against Mason. Wong said, "You've done well. This is perfect. I am going to put this on VHS and I will sell them in stores. I will be a millionaire before the end of this week. I want to thank all of you for making this possible. I never thought I would become an entertainment king someday in the future. I will rule the entertainment industry and I will have enough money to buy every entertainment franchise in the world and I will ruin everyone's favorite movies by adding bad scenes and awful alterations, so they will choose my original works over anyone else's. This is the greatest plan, ever." Wong holds a video camera up to Jason and Mason and he said, "Do you have any final comments?" Jason and Mason just make groaning sounds." Wong makes the groaning sounds and he said, "That is the comment left by Jason and Mason." A familiar voice said, "I have a comment." Wong looks to see who it is and Jason and Mason smile in hope as they see Captain Fusion enter Wong's lair.

Wong said, "Captain Fusion, how did you find me? I have an unlisted number." Captain Fusion said, "You can't fool me that easily. You have been calling me for weeks telling me to donate $800 to a charity so I can get a free cruise in the Bahamas. I looked up that charity and it does not exist. I knew something was wrong and you have been calling me for weeks. My phone has a tracker that I installed in it and all those calls led to this place." Wong said, "Drat. You are not going to give everyone's money back to them. I've been stealing money from people since 1997." Captain Fusion said, "More evidence to keep you behind bars." Wong said, "Ninjas, strong man, take him down." Ninjas run for Captain Fusion and he fights them off as if they are nothing. The strong man comes, and he throws punches at Captain Fusion and he blocks all of them and Captain Fusion picks up the strong man and he flips and spins him in the air and he throws the strong man to the ground and he cracks the strong man's skull. Wong said, "How did you do that?" Captain Fusion said, "I have a genetically augmented body structure. It is hard to beat me." Wong holds up his fists and he tries to punch Captain Fusion, but the hits do nothing. Captain Fusion punches Wong in the face one way and he punches him in the face the other way and Captain Fusion knees Wong in the gut and Wong falls to the floor in pain.

The police show up and they arrest Wong and his men they see Jason and Mason lying on the floor in pain. Captain Fusion said to the police, "Jason and Mason were being mind controlled by Wong, so they will be his pawns on his chessboard. They would have done more damage to themselves if I did not step in and help them. Wong has stolen money from people for the last three years. All his records of people he scammed are kept in that computer over there." The police said, "Thanks Captain Fusion." Captain Fusion said, "Don't mention it." Captain Fusion helps Jason and Mason up and he takes them back to their home. Jason and Mason look on the internet a few days later and there is no sign of them at all. Instead there are videos on some annoying kid that makes stupid videos that are popular. Mason said, "It looks as though the public has forgotten about us." Jason said, "That's how trends are. There are things that were popular a few weeks ago that are gone and long forgotten now." Mason said, "I can't even find any traces of our videos anywhere on here. I think Captain Fusion may have invented something to erase our videos from the internet." Jason said, "That Captain Fusion is a genius." Mason said, "You've said it. Look at this. It seems that Captain Fusion is travelling around the city and he is returning all the money Wong stole from people to the rightful owners." Jason said, "Captain Fusion, where would we be without him?"
